November 03, 2021 – His Majesty King Peter J. Goldishman of Mount Vema – The Vema Seamount Authority and his wife Lady Trinity of Mount Vema have released another rare photo together.

The picture, which was made available to VSBCnews early today, Wednesday, November 3rd, 2021, is now also available on the official site of the Mount Vema Monarchy and is the Monarchy's 2021 official photo.

This is the second time this year a picture of the royal couple is made public. The first this year, was made public back in July to mark Independence Day and 15 years of significant establishment of statehood based on the ancient island (known today as Mount Vema) which has eroded by millions of years of wave action, and which with the declaration of sovereignty, Peter Goldishman has demonstrated to the world that you don't cease to exist just because you are underwater. You simply adapt to the world's changing environment and carry on.

The picture released today is not just the new official photo of the Mount Vema monarchy, it is also high significant because the Monarchy of Mount Vema is very private. They do not take many pictures, so this 2021 Official Photo was also well received by the Mount Vema society.
