

Analysts prediction about the Mount Vema Stock Exchange could be right

September 02, 2021 – Early this year analysts at the RBMV Bank told VSBCnews on that the Gollexi index (Mount Vema Stock Exchange) could reach 5,000 points by the end of the year or by early next year.

The analysts were sounding optimistic as investors continued to bet on the economic growth of Mount Vema. This week it was another clear indication that the analysts seemed to know what they were talking about.

Today the Gollexi index (Mount Vema Stock Market) reached 3250.75 points, led by MVScld, the company set to be Mount Vema’s broadband internet service and telecommunications provider which was up 12.62, about 27.65%.

Some Mount Vema companies were also affected by the COVID19 pandemic especially those already providing services to customers overseas, however the companies that are focusing on the City of Mount Vema project only, have not been affected, and there are many including Veman Food & Beverages, Handy Deed, ARCKrove, RBMV Bank, GolleCard just to name a few out of the more than 200 Mount Vema companies, all on the path for growth.

Mount Vema companies are generating a lot of interest across the world. MVScld, the biggest gainer in the Mount Vema Stock Exchange this Thursday is already on the outlook for talent and, is receiving interesting proposals for business partnerships.

MVScld is currently the only telephone operator and mobile network provider, established to serve the Kingdom of Mount Vema. Aiming to provide fixed, mobile, and data telecommunications for the City of Mount Vema.
