

Football scouts needed as Bella Vista Club starts global campaign to find talented players

May 27, 2021 – Bella Vista Football Club is looking for football scouts worldwide to follow and focus on their local football matches on behalf of the club to find talented football players, as the club prepares for the City of Mount Vema.

Bella Vista is building its team to be ready for friendly matches overseas, build fitness, and help new players and managers settle in when called for training and matches.

Although all Mount Vema clubs will have professional basketball teams, athletics, sailing, and swimming for the Mount Vema domestic championships, as well as participation in international events, Bella Vista like all other Mount Vema clubs has started with its football team.

Player scouts will evaluate the talent of footballers with a view to signing them on a professional contract with the club. Some scouts will focus on discovering promising young players and future stars, and others will be employed to run the rule on potential signings.

A source told VSBCnews that the aim is to establish an extensive international scouting networks for the club. Bella Vista is listed on Mount Vema Stock Exchange with a share price currently at 36.11 golles up 212.11%.

The scouts will need to have a Mount Vema bank account to apply. Applications must be submitted through the contact page of the Mount Vema official website. CVs should be directed to: Bella Vista F.C. – Football Scouts Division.

The successful candidates will be offered a two-year contract, which could be renewed after two years to continue, on part time bases or to become full-time employees of the club as tactical scouts, especially for those who their knowledge and findings become considered precious to the club.

