

Wholesale suppliers of rice are invited to submit bids – Veman Food & Beverage

May 31, 2021 – Veman Food & Beverage, the food and beverage company of Mount Vema, is inviting suppliers to submit proposals to supply rice to the Kingdom of Mount Vema, as the company continues to prepare to play a key role in the supply chain of the Vema Seamount Territory.

Sources told VSBCnews on Friday that Veman Food & Beverage intends to offer contracts to companies who can supply one or different types of rice on demand.

The suppliers must find the means to deliver direct to any structure in Mount Vema used or which may be used from time to time as a provisional port until the construction of the Port of Mount Vema is completed.

Veman Food & Beverage, which is listed on the Mount Vema Stock Exchange, plans to be active in more than 20 countries by 2030 and, is working to become the leading supplier of food and beverage not only to the City of Mount Vema during and after construction, but also to the maritime industry, especially to cruise ships and yachts expected to use Mount Vema as port of call.

Tenders should be submitted through the official contact page of Mount Vema at: <https://www.mount-vema.com/contact-mount-vema.html>, and should be directed to: Veman Food & Beverage – Grain Procurement Division.
